YELL-O-JAK

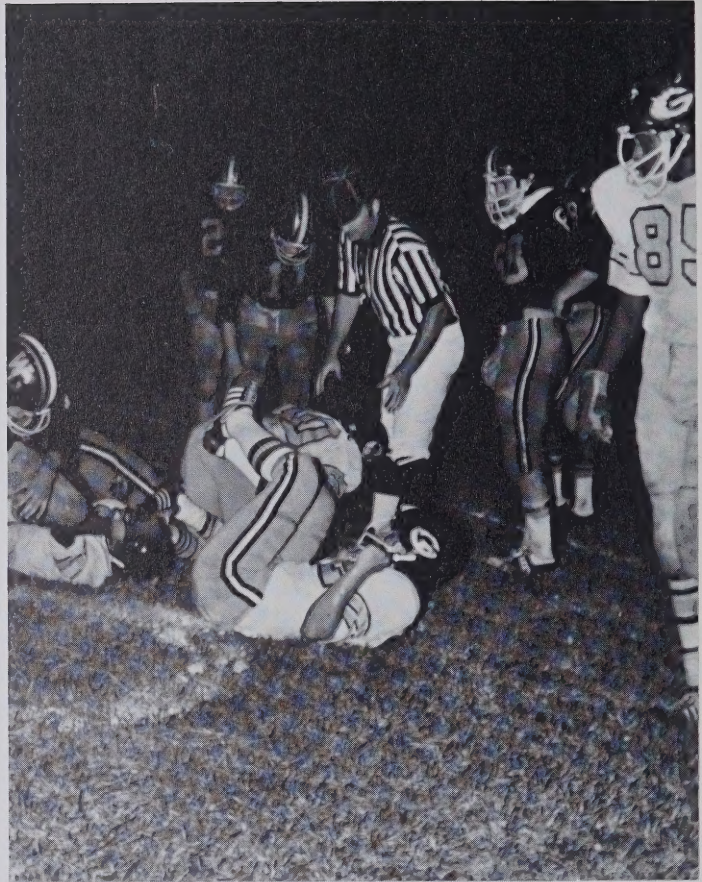

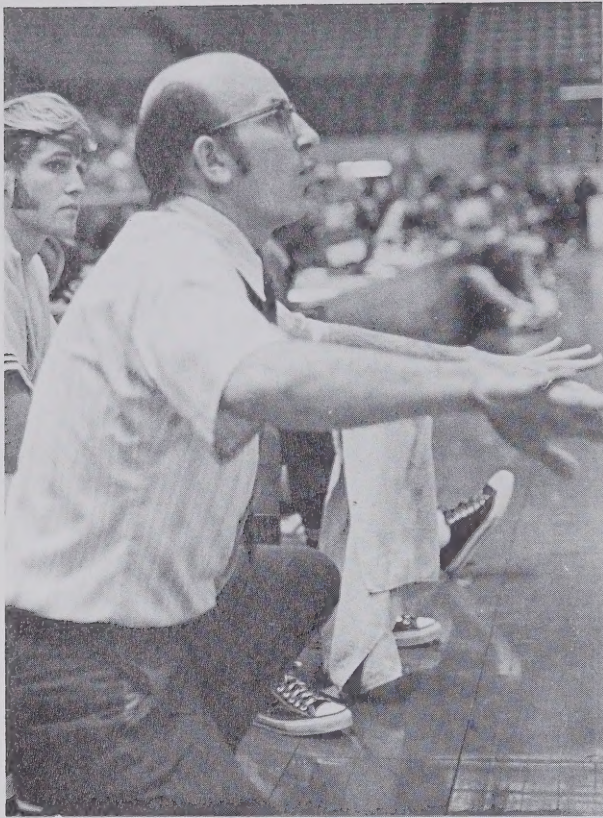

1973

Not till we are lost, in other words not till we have lost the world, do we begin to find ourselves, and realize where we are and the infinite extent of our relations . . .

—Thoreau

presented by the yell-o-jak staff, its editor and assistant, patti brookshire, paula smith and advisors, mrs.
nita onufrak and mrs. kay sykes. Gibsonville Public School, Gibsonville, North Carolina.

Man needs others to become himself

—Gregory Baum

We must live together
as brothers or die together
as fools

—Martin Luther King

Life is an island in an ocean of loneliness, an island whose rocks are hopes, whose trees are dreams, whose flowers are solitude, and whose brooks are thirst.

Your life, my fellowmen, is an island separated from all other islands and regions. No matter how many are the ships that leave your shores for other climes.

Kahlil Gibran

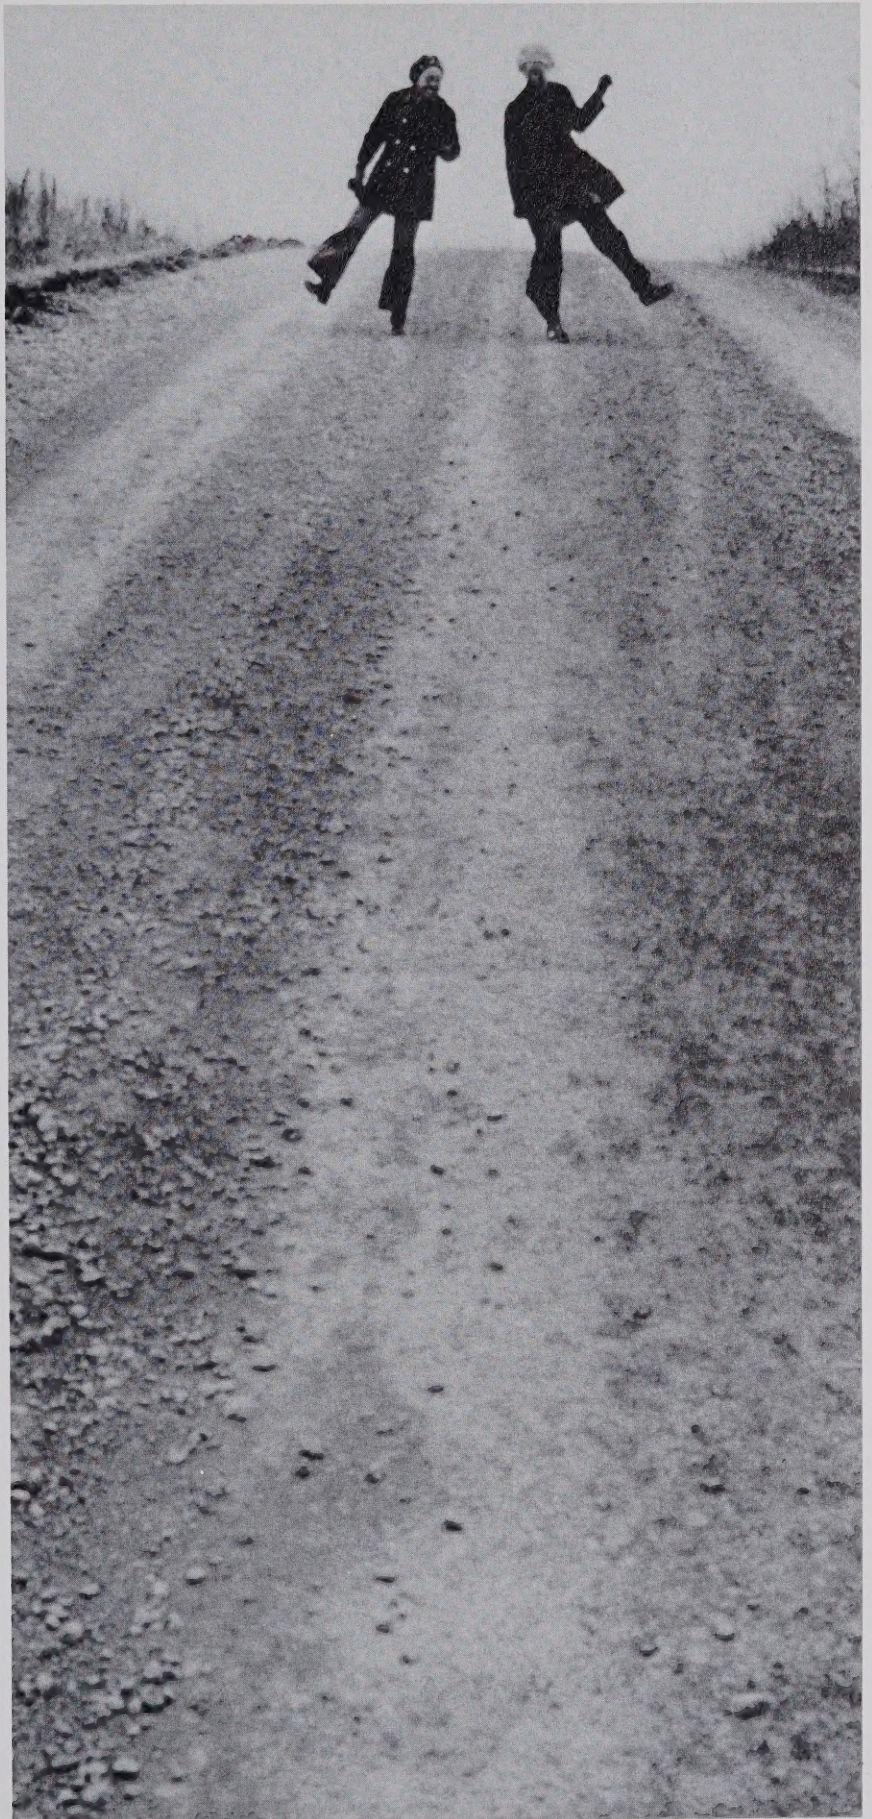

... if you only knew that the Poverty which causes you so much wretchedness is the very thing that reveals the knowledge of Justice and the understanding of Life, you would be contented with your lot.

I say knowledge of Justice: for the rich man is too busy amassing wealth to seek this knowledge.

And I say understanding of Life: for the strong man is too eager in his pursuit of power and glory to keep to the straight path of truth.

Rejoice then, . . . , for you are the mouth of Justice and the book of Life. Be content, for you are the source of virtue in those who rule over you and the pillar of integrity of those who guide you.

Kahlil Gibran

You will do foolish things but do them with enthusiasm

—Colette

Know thyself
—Thales

Life is made up
of sobs, sniffles,
and smiles, with sniffles predominating

—O. Henry

Your friend is your needs answered.

And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasures.

—Kahlil Gibran

Talent is developed in retirement:
character is formed in the rush of the world.

—Goethe

Necessity is the mother of invention

—Latin Proverb

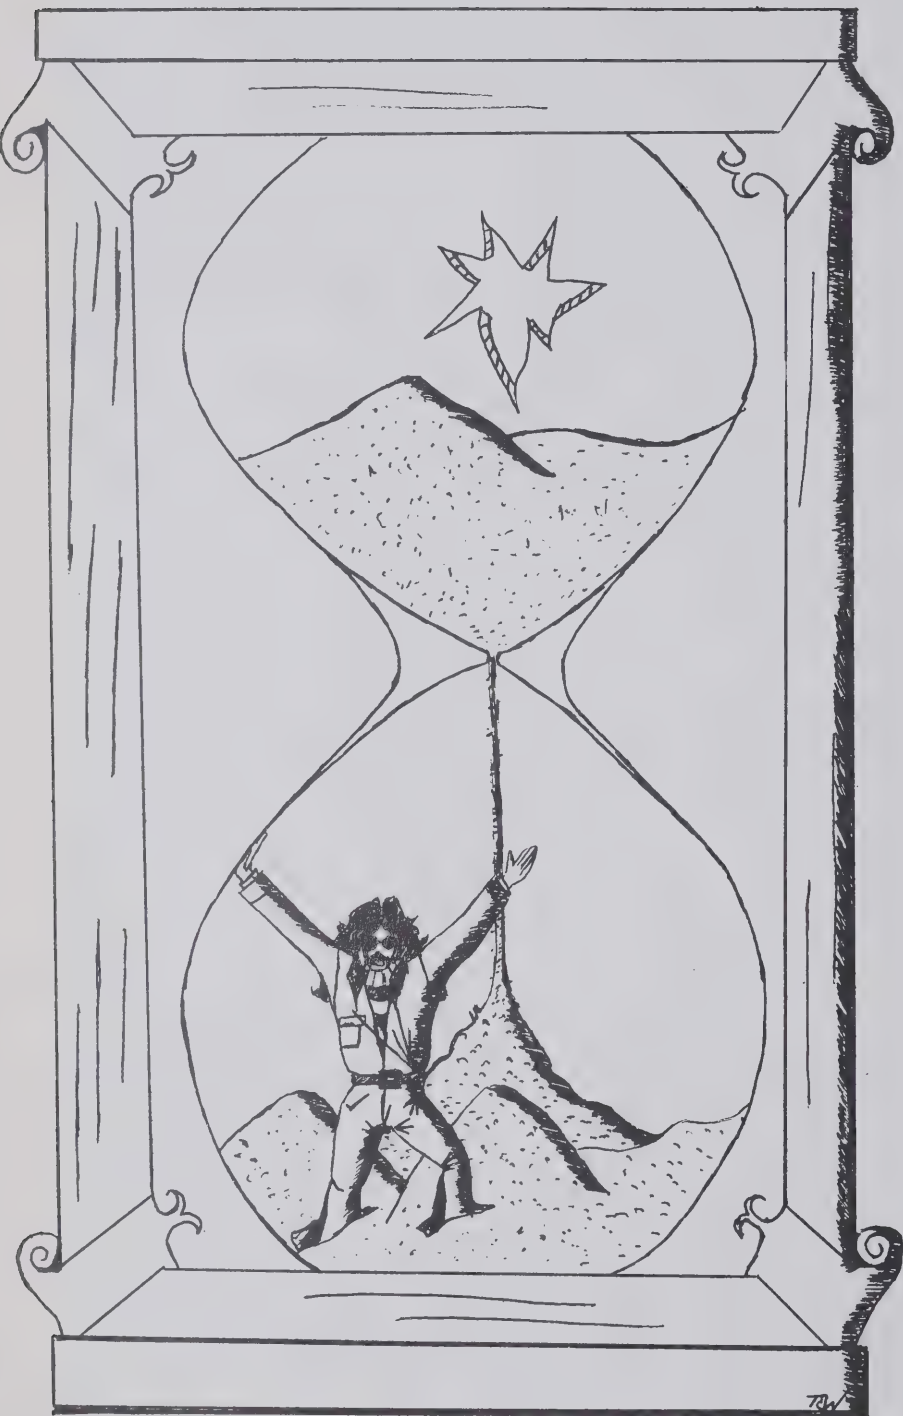

Man is but a reed,
the weakest in nature,
but he is a thinking reed.

—Pascal

Things do not change; we change

—Thoreau

One by one the sands are flowing,
One by one the moments fall;
Some are coming, some are going;
Do not strive to grasp them all.

One by one thy duties wait thee,
Let thy whole strength go to each,
Let no future dreams elate thee,
Learn thou first what these can teach.

One by one (bright gifts from Heaven)
Joys are sent thee here below;
Take them readily when given,
Ready too to let them go.

One by one thy griefs shall meet thee,
Do not fear an armed band;
One will fade as others greet thee;
Shadows passing through the land.

Do not linger with regretting,
Or for passing hours despond;
Nor, the daily toil forgetting,
Look too eagerly beyond.

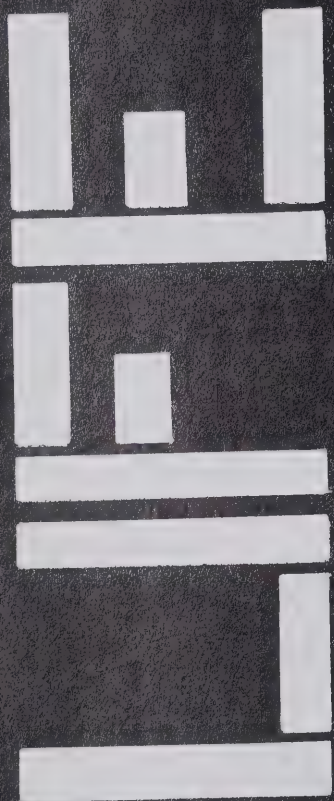

Hours are golden links, God's token,
Reaching Heaven; but one by one
Take them, lest the chain be broken
Ere the pilgrimage be done.
— Adelaide A. Procter

The 1973 annual dedication is in honor of a person who is sincerely concerned with the individuality of each student. She is of a rare group of people whom we have been fortunate to have with us. In the midst of frustrated students, hysterical teachers, over-worked administrators, and irate parents, she calmly and efficiently performs impossible tasks, never complaining but always there to lend a helping hand with a cheerful smile. She has not only watched our school grow and develop, but has shared in its heartbreaks and triumphs. Because of this unique and warm human being who is so much a part of our school, it seems most appropriate that our last yearbook should be dedicated to our own . . .

FELITA IS HOMECOMING QUEEN

Felita Worley is a 15 year old Sophomore. She was crowned Homecoming Queen during halftime activities at the 1972 homecoming game. Felita is trim, five feet tall, has brown eyes and long brown hair. Her friends are her security, and she would rather sit and talk with them than anything else. She "hates work, loves to sleep, but isn't lazy." Lobsters, swimming, basketball, and soul music are attention getters for Felita.

BETA CLUB

The need is not really for more brains; the need is now for a gentler, more tolerant people than those who won for us against the ice, the tiger, the bear. The hand that hefted the ax, out of some old blind allegiance to the past, fondles the machine gun as lovingly. It is a habit man will have to break to survive, but the roots go very deep.

There is More to Life

Is there something missing? Is there more to life? Who can tell us where to turn? Help us! help us! help us through the strife. Can we find the answers? Can we really know? Does the Bible show the way for us, for us, for us here below? Beneath the noise and laughter with all the parties and fun; I wondered what would come after—the empty masquerade was done. Then today they show me that His love is real; and my life would only begin when before Him I would kneel.

Now my life has meaning, Just the way He planned. Through the years I'll do His will, Guided, guided, guided by His hand. Tho' each day is bringing questions quite a few, If I pray and read His word He will, He will, He will see us through. Now by His standard I measure and life is worth so much more; Even the goals that I treasure—are different than they were before. When I think of others groping aimlessly, I in turn must share with them, telling what He's done for me.

JAYCEE CREED

WE BELIEVE:

That faith in God gives meaning and purpose
to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of laws rather than
of men;
That earth's great treasure lies in human personality;
And that service to humanity is the best work
of life.
